IDenticard: The Experienced Leader in the World of Security.

With 30 years of experience, IDenticard is a leading manufacturer of photo identification and access control systems. The Lancaster, PA-based firm services over 20,000 customers worldwide including colleges and universities, industries, hospitals, government agencies, and other organizations. Uniquely positioned as the "total solutions" partner in security ID, IDenticard offers a comprehensive package of cards, digital imaging, access control, asset tracking and security, and smart cards.

Today, no other firm in the industry can match IDenticard's lineup of fully-integrated ID systems – all available from one reliable, experienced source.

A common reader can be used for both time and attendance and access control, saving money.

Solutions for Today's Business Environment

IDenticard Systems, Inc., a leading worldwide manufacturer of security identification, and Stromberg, LLC, a market leader in time and employee management systems, have formed an alliance to provide integrated time and attendance and access control solutions.

Access control system compatible with most of the reader technologies in the market today.

One employee ID card can provide photo identification, access control, time and attendance, and more.

Integrated system supports a hybrid environment of clocks and readers.

Attendance Control

This partnership has made it possible for the two industry leaders to offer single badge operations and single data entry in conjunction with time management and access control. Employees can now be entered into a photo identification, digital imaging, access control, and time and attendance program with one badge at one entry.

Stromberg: Enterprise Solutions for Time and Employee Management
